What Is Marriage?

“Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.” (Genesis 2:24)

“a. The condition of being a husband or wife; the relation between persons married to each other; matrimony.” (The Oxford English Dictionary)

“Marriage, as distinguished from the agreement to marry and from the act of becoming married, Is the civil status of one man and one woman united in law for life, for the discharge to each other and the community of the duties legally incumbent on those whose association is founded on the distinction of sex.” 1 Bish. Mar. & Div. (Black's Law Dictionary)

“Marriage, also called matrimony or wedlock, is a socially or ritually recognized union or legal contract between spouses that establishes rights and obligations between them, between them and their children, and between them and their in-laws.” (Wikipedia)

What is a Christian Marriage?

A “Christian marriage” is when a marriage union takes place between a man and a woman who are Bible believing Christians and who truly want to serve the Lord together. A Christian marriage is one that should be entered into for the glory of God.

From The Bible

“Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.” (Genesis 2:24)

“And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made [them] at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.” (Matthew 19:4-6)

Jesus refers us back to the beginning so we start there.

In Genesis chapter one do you see that everything has a counterpart or a companion? 1:1,4,5,7,10,14,16,18,21,24,25,27. In Genesis 1:20-23 God creates all aquatic life and fowls of the air saying that they should bring forth, “... abundantly, after their kind...” He then states they should, “be fruitful and multiply...” In other words, they were to reproduce by mating and having offspring.

In verse 24 God creates “living creatures, cattle, creeping things, and beasts of the earth.” Then He creates man in verse 26 “let us make man in our image, after our likeness.” In verse 27 we’re told He created male and female (notice the counterpart or companion--God does not leave man alone) and they are to have dominion over everything v.26. Keep in mind chapter one is a summery of the creative work while chapter two goes into detail.

In verse 28 they are told to, “be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth.” The KJV has “replenish” the word is ma le’ מִלֵּא meaning to fill, or full. The majority of the time this Hebrew word is used its “fill or full” not replenish. Given the context it has to be fill and not replenish. Just as there was a counterpart or companion for everything so to God will make a companion for man chapter 2:18 for he is not to be left alone. But in fact “there was not found a help meet for him.” The word “help meet” is a zar’ זָרָא meaning a helper or supporter. Some translations have helpmate, which is wrong there is no such word. Animals “mate” not humans.

God takes this woman that He created and brings her to Adam. He sees that she is like him and compatible to him and therefore declares, “This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.”

He then says, “Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.”

Now there are three parts to this, which will make clear what marriage is.

1. “Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother” that is, leaving (or literally a zab to forsake, depart, let loose) the family unit that he is now in; abandoning submission to parents and transitioning from child to a man to start his own family unit.
2. “...and shall cleave unto his wife:” that is to go find a woman for himself, with Gods help of course, to make her his wife “cleave(ing)” to her. To cleave to dabaq to cling, stay close, keep close, or to stay with. This is that a man finds a woman makes her his wife (not just a woman he sleeps with but the title “wife” elevates her to his wife) the one he possesses as his very own; that is being with her only. This is commitment and relationship.
3. “and they shall be one flesh.” This is that he goes into her and has sex to join flesh to flesh. So we see the three elements forsaking, staying with, and joining flesh to flesh.

So then marriage is a man leaving his family--father and mother, finding a woman to be his wife, and joining flesh to flesh. Sex alone is not marriage. Neither is a nonsexual relationship. There is no marriage except for willful leaving of the ones family unit, a commitment of relationship to each other to be each others, and joining flesh to flesh. That is marriage.

So then marriage is a man leaving his family--father and mother, finding a woman to be his wife, and joining flesh to flesh.
